[IRG GIVES BACK]

[All IRG Physical & Hand Therapy clinics chooses LOCAL charities to help during the holiday season. We are your neighborhood therapist and happy to support our community beyond the clinic]

[Mill Creek], [1.18.2023] –

IRG Physical & Hand Therapy clinics collected canned, non-perishable food, winter gear and toys during the holiday months to donate to local community organizations. Over 30 clinics participated in collecting a total of: 762 pounds of food; $1,702 in donations; 892 toys; 50 items of clothing; and over 200 pounds of pet food and toys.

“We are so thankful for the all the different communities that we are involved in, and it is our goal to give back,” IRG Physical & Hand Therapy CEO and president, Shannon O’Kelley, MPT, said. “Hunger is always an issue around the holidays, and we want to help in any way we can, to show our gratitude to the community.”

IRG is committed to being a part of our communities and doing good from within. For a full list of the organizations in your communities impacted, visit: irgpt.com/give.

About [IRG Physical & Hand Therapy]

IRG Physical & Hand Therapy is the Northwest’s premier physical and hand therapy group. We have locations throughout the Puget Sound including Snohomish, King, Skagit and Island counties. You never have to travel far to receive exceptional service.

At IRG, we’re dedicated to providing services that improve patient awareness and enrich our surrounding communities. We actively support community events and organizations throughout the year, including team sports, fitness clubs, schools, and non-profit organizations. We endeavor to make a positive difference where we live, work and play.
